HSBC launches $3-bn buyback

BYTEDANCE'S ZHANG BECOMES CHINA'S RICHEST

BYTEDANCE FOUNDER ZHANG Yiming tops the list of China's richest people, according to the Hurun Research Institute, although many of them have seen their net worth plunge over the past year. The institute, which publishes the annual Hurun China Rich List, found that the total wealth of entrepreneurs on the list this year was $3 trillion, down 10% from the previous year.

 October 29

HSBC ANNOUNCED a fresh multibillion-dollar stock buyback as it reported better-than-estimated earnings, days after unveiling a major overhaul of its businesses. Europe's largest bank said Tuesday that it would repurchase up to $3 billion of shares on the back of a 9.9% gain in pretax profit from a year earlier to $8.48 billion. The results were driven by gains in divisions including its wealth arm, which benefitted from higher private banking volumes in Asia, according to its statement.

DAYS AFTER OVERHAUL

HSBC would repurchase up to $3 bn of shares on the back of a 9.9% gain. Buyback follows last week's unveiling of HSBC's biggest revamp in at least a decade. The bank gained 243,000 customers in Hong Kong in the quarter, while overall fee income in wealth rose 32%.

The buyback follows last week's unveiling of HSBC's biggest revamp in at least a decade that would see the merger of its global commercial and investment banking units. The move also included a wider geographical overhaul that would make Hong Kong and the UK standalone units and fold Asia Pacific and West Asia into an Eastern regional division.

"There was strong revenue growth and good performances in wealth and wholesale transaction banking," CEO Georges Elhedery said, presiding over his first set of financial results since taking the helm at the British lender on September 2. The bank gained 243,000 customers in Hong Kong in the quarter, while overall fee income in wealth rose 32%. HSBC has targeted becoming the premier wealth bank in Asia, as it has divested other business across the world. HSBC shares jumped 4.9% in London on Tuesday, the biggest intraday gain in six months, after rallying earlier in Hong Kong. —BLOOMBERG

EYES ON US ELECTION
China mulls over $1.4 trn in extra debt

REUTERS
 October 29

CHINA IS CONSIDERING approving next week the issuance of over 10 trillion yuan ($1.4 trillion) in extra debt in the next few years to revive its fragile economy, a fiscal package which is expected to be further bolstered if Donald Trump wins the US election, said two sources with knowledge of the matter. China's top legislative body, the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress (NPC), is looking to approve the fresh fiscal package, including 6 trillion yuan which would partly be raised via special sovereign bonds, on the last day of a meeting to be held from Nov. 4-8, said the sources.

FISCAL PUSH

The 6-trillion-yuan worth of debt would be raised over three years including 2024. The planned total amount, to be raised by issuing both special treasury and local government bonds, equates to over 8% of China's output. The spending plans suggest that Beijing has switched into a higher stimulus gear to prop up the economy.

The central bank in late September announced the most aggressive monetary support measures since the COVID-19 pandemic. The government followed up weeks later by flagging more fiscal stimulus without specifying financial details of the package, stoking intense speculation in global markets about the size of the new spending. The sources who have knowledge of the matter declined to be named due to confidentiality constraints. The State Council Information Office and the news department of the NPC Standing Committee did not immediately respond to Reuters requests for comment.

TRUMP ALLEGES DEMOCRATIC 'COUP' OF BIDEN

REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE Donald Trump falsely said Democrats had staged a "coup" to force President Joe Biden to drop his re-election bid, as his Democratic rival Kamala Harris planned a rally in Washington that will remind voters of the violent attack on the US Capitol by Trump's supporters.

BP profit dips to near 4-year low

RON BOUSSO
 London, October 29

BP ON TUESDAY reported a 30% drop in third-quarter profit to $2.3 billion, the lowest in almost four years, weighed down by weaker refining margins and oil trading results. The decline was smaller than expected amid a slowdown in global economic activity and oil demand, particularly in China, but raises pressure on CEO Murray Auchincloss, who has vowed to boost BP's performance in the face of investor concerns over its energy transition strategy. "We've been making massive progress focusing and simplifying the business," Auchincloss told Reuters. BP shares, which were trading 4.25% lower by 1357 GMT, compared with a 0.5% drop for rival Shell, have underperformed those of its rivals so far this year, falling 18% compared with a 2.7% decline for Shell and a 18% gain for Exxon Mobil as investors question the

McDonald's global sales fall on muted demand

SAVYATA MISHRA
 October 29

MCDONALD'S POSTED a steeper-than-expected drop in quarterly global sales, hurt by muted demand across key markets, including Europe and the United States where it is expected to face more weakness as the burger giant reels from a deadly E. coli outbreak. Shares of the company were down 2.4% before the bell on Tuesday even as it beat profit estimates. Global sales fell 1.5% in the third quarter, the biggest decline in four years, compared with analysts' average estimate of a 0.72% fall, according to data compiled by LSEG.

Last week, McDonald's temporarily paused serving Quarter Pounders in a fifth of its 14,000 US restaurants in an E. coli outbreak that has killed at least one person. Shares declined nearly 7% last week as infections rose to 75 people. Quarter Pounders were being added back to the menu this week. Slivered onions used in the hamburgers are likely to be the source of the infection, with the Colorado Department of Agriculture over the weekend ruling out beef patties as the possible cause. —REUTERS

Pfizer profit up on Covid treatment sales

PFIZER REPORTED HIGHER-THAN-EXPECTED profit on Tuesday due to strong sales of Covid-19 treatment Paxlovid, an important win for CEO Albert Bourla as he faces down activist investor Starboard. Still, investors said the firm had work to do to show it can improve its prospects, and shares fell slightly in early trading. —REUTERS

Lufthansa reports 9% drop in third-quarter profit

GERMAN AIRLINE GROUP Lufthansa reported a fall in third-quarter operating profit on Tuesday as its flagship brand struggles with low yields, competition with international airlines and spiralling costs. Q3 operating profit of $1.41 bn was largely in line with the expectations of analysts polled by the firm, but 9% lower than a year earlier. —REUTERS

Hezbollah elects Naim Qassem as head to succeed Nasrallah

HEZBOLLAH ANNOUNCED ON Tuesday that it has chosen cleric Naim Qassem to lead the Lebanese militant group after the killing of its longtime leader Hassan Nasrallah in an Israeli airstrike on a Beirut suburb in late September. The group said in a statement making Hezbollah's decision-making Shura Council elected Kassem, 71, as its new secretary-general and vowed to continue Nasrallah's policies "until victory is achieved." Since Nasrallah's death as part of an Israeli offensive that took out many of Hezbollah's senior officials, the white-turbaned cleric with a gray beard has often been the public face of the Lebanese militant group.

He is one of its founding members but is widely seen by supporters as lacking his predecessor's oratory skills. Earlier this month, Kassem, who carries the clerical title of sheikh, claimed Hezbollah's military capabilities were intact after Nasrallah's killing and warned Israelis they will only suffer further as fighting continues. —AP

I think Nvidia is undervalued: Son

ANTON BRIDGE
 Tokyo, October 29

SOFTBANK GROUP CEO Masayoshi Son reiterated his belief in the coming of artificial super intelligence (ASI) on Tuesday, saying it would require hundreds of billions of dollars of investment to realise. He predicted that generative AI will require $900 trillion dollars in cumulative capital expenditure in data centres and chips in the future, adding that he thought chip maker Nvidia was undervalued on this basis. Artificial super intelligence will be 10,000 times smarter than a human brain

MASAYOSHI SON,
 Group CEO, SoftBank

ARTIFICIAL SUPER INTELLIGENCE WILL BE 10,000 TIMES SMARTER THAN A HUMAN BRAIN AND WILL EXIST BY 2035

and will exist by 2035, Son told an audience of global business, technology and finance leaders at a conference in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

Son said he is saving up funds "so I can make the next big move," but did not provide any details as to his investment plans.

Son has long touted the promise of new technologies and made his name and fortune on successful bets on the proliferation of mobile internet and e-commerce. However, his record as an investor is patchy. The launch of SoftBank's mammoth Vision Fund investment vehicles from 2017 upended the world of venture capital but many of the funds' high growth startups have crashed in value. The funds were down $2.4 billion in aggregate as of the end of June 2024. Saudi Arabia's sovereign wealth fund PIF invested $45 billion into the first Vision Fund. —REUTERS
